

AIRES A

The latest addition to Paged's collection, launched at 2018's Salone Del Mobile, Milan. The upholstered armchair is built for comfort, designed and manufactured in Europe.

A modern armchair, characterized by an unusual, inclined shape of the armrests. The form of the furniture was inspired by the equestrian saddle as one of the symbols associated with the designer's country (Dario Polaco comes from Argentina). The upholstery of both the seat and backrest surfaces ensures high comfort of use. The combination of one of many available variants of coloring of wood and fabric enables the creation of extremely versatile compositions.
