

Fox (1x Ex-Showroom, Taupe Shell, Natural Timber)

Fox is an elegant collection of armchairs having a distinctive character and contained dimensions. A thin fiber-glass reinforced polypropylene shell with genuine leather upholstery is set in the ash wood profile curved and rounded at the ends. The armchair welcomes the guest with the warm hug of wood. Versatility and functionality of the collection are guaranteed thanks to the multiple colour combinations between the wood and the comfortable shell, matching legs in ash wood of variable section
