

JULIE

TRABA, ITALIA

The warmth of reminiscing, of chats with friends, the freshness of tradition with a contemporary twist, Julie constitutes the expert revisitation of the archetypal chair, in which memory, tradition and modernity come together to create something new. The clean lines of the frame combined with the simplicity of the materials, down to the leather textures or the stylish range of finishes, amplify the mood poised between memory and modernity. The Julie collection includes a beech model, available either with a plywood seat or with a padded seat upholstered in fabric, velvet, leather or faux leather. The collection takes up the leather weave motif on the seat and backrest, or just on the backrest, combined with a plywood seat upholstered with applied leather. The beech frame comes in various finishes: natural, bleached, cocoa- or tin grey-stained, and lacquered to match the colour of the body. The Julie collection also includes a stool and lounge chair, Julie constitutes the expert revisitation of the archetypal chair, in which memory, tradition and modernity come together to create something new.
