

PLC Bar Stool

Complementing our award winning PLC side chair is a simple and sophisticated timber bar stool, available in either solid oak or in beech with a matt painted finish. The ply seat and back rest can be upholstered independently. Available in a choice of colours, for larger projects custom colours are possible. Upholstery is available in a wide range of contract fabrics and leathers

The finishes shown are our standard finishes, if you wish to specify any finish other than these options please contact us to discuss your requirements. Please note that colours are for reference only.
