

POP

The Pop operative chair was born from the need to review the dictates that have regulated the world of office operations up to now. The soap-shaped seat, the plastic backrest with supporting net, the padded and adjustable lumbar support guarantee perfect ergonomics that satisfy any type of user. The headrest integrates the seat and raises it to a semi-directional position. The stool versions complete and define the range. Luxy's research and development team worked hard before approaching the shore of this project. Pop explodes into the world of operations and goes straight to the core of the concept: an easy and colorful office.
