

Setz Cluster

The cluster unit consists of six-seats positioned back-to-back around a triangular table. Clusters can be connected to form semi-circular seating arrangements suitable for families and small groups. The large triangular table provides sufficient space for all occupants to work or relax. Power access is optional.